

Digital

Production Board

Digital Production Board

- Digital Production Board, provides a control panel with the production status.
- Operators have a menu where they can choose the operation they will perform. The operators are completely autonomous to start, pause and finish the operation.
- The line board dashboard provides visual information regarding to every sector.

